HEREBY DECREES

Article 1 – Implementation

1. There is a public exam for 2 places for the admission to the 3-year Ph.D. course Models, Machines and Systems engineering for energy, the environment and transport - 35th cycle – with administrative seat at the University of Genoa, under the project MSCA-ITN-2019 "Next Generation of Micro Gas Turbines for High Efficiency, Low Emissions and Fuel Flexibility (NextMGT)", mentioned above, specified in Appendix A
2. The public exam shall proceed on the basis of Qualifications/publications as indicated in Annex A.
3. According to the present notice, by qualifications/publications we hereby imply the information contained in the application and in the curriculum vitae, reference letters, research project, other qualifications mentioned under Art. 3, paragraph 2, letter d), and paragraph 3 of this public notice.
The following information is specified in Appendix A:
 - the Coordinator of the course;
 - the Department coordinating for research;
 - the information concerning the research themes.

Article 2 – Admission Requirements

1. In order to apply for a place in the doctoral research programmes, students must have a second cycle degree, an equivalent qualification, or an equivalent qualification by study level (Master’s Degree) from a foreign University.

2. In the case of a degree obtained abroad and judged suitable, if the qualification has not yet been deemed equivalent, the candidate shall require that this recognition be granted for public exam purposes only. In such cases candidates shall also enclose the following documents:

- a) a translation of the academic qualifications duly notarized by the Italian diplomatic or consular office of the country in which the qualifications were achieved;
- b) a “dichiarazione di valore” (declaration of worth) of the qualifications drawn up by the same consular body.

The decree of equivalence shall be accepted solely for admission to the public exam and to enrol on the Course.

3. If the Italian diplomatic or consular office does not provide the documentation in time to apply, one should enclose all the documentation available.

The consequent decree of equivalence shall be accepted on condition that the legal translation and the “dichiarazione di valore” (declaration of worth) be presented within the deadline for enrollment on the course for the candidates who have been admitted.

4. The documents as per the previous paragraph 2 can be substituted with Diploma Supplement issued by the University according to European Commission, Council of Europe and UNESCO/CEPES standard in case of a degree obtained abroad within the European Union.

5. The issuing of the above-mentioned documentation and of a residence permit to attend the course to foreign nationals is regulated by the note of the Ministry for Education, Universities and Research, “Rules and regulations concerning the access of foreign students to courses for the academic year 2019-2020”, available at the following address <http://www.studiare-in-italia.it/studentistranieri>

Article 3 – Application

1. Applications for the selection procedure shall be submitted by means of the online procedure available at the address <http://servizionline.unige.it/studenti/post-laurea/dottorato>, by 12 noon (Italian time) of 6th April 2020 (the expiry date of the public notice).

The application date of submission is certified by the electronic system which, at the expiry of the deadline, will no longer allow access and the sending of the application. The electronic system will issue a receipt of the enrollment on the public exam, which the candidate must print out, sign and present when and if admitted to the course.

2. Applications shall report (self-certification) – under the candidates’ responsibility and at the risk of exclusion from the public exam – the following information:

- a) the applicant’s full name, tax code, date and place of birth, place of residence, contact telephone number and postal address chosen for the purposes of this selection. Foreign nationals should supply an address in Italy, otherwise that of their Embassy in Italy as the agreed place of domicile. Tax codes can be omitted by foreign applicants if unavailable, though this should be clearly stated;
- b) the title of the Ph.D. course and the curriculum is applying for;
- c) the applicant’s citizenship;
- d) the type and name of degree held, date, grade and name of the awarding University or the equivalent qualification granted by a foreign University, as well as the documentation in which its equivalence has been granted or the request for equivalence issued for admission purposes only as per art. 2;
- e) adequate command of the English language;
- f) only for foreign students: level of knowledge of Italian language;
- g) a commitment to communicate each/any change in residence or address in time.

Applications submitted after 12 noon of 6th April 2020 shall not be taken into consideration.

3. The following documents should also be attached by means of the on-line procedure:
- a) a valid identity document, both sides should be scanned if it is an identity card or a driving licence;
 - b) the candidates' curriculum vitae et studiorum. The above-mentioned curriculum may include all the information relevant to the subject themes of the doctoral course the candidate is applying for. This information, for example, may concern: previous research and/or work experience, any other qualifications (study qualifications included), certifications, publications, patents, etc.;
 - c) a research project concerning one or more research themes of the doctoral course candidates are applying for as indicated in Appendix A (10 pages maximum);
 - d) a document containing the title and a brief description of their dissertation, as well as a list of the examinations, the marks and, if possible, a brief description of the relative syllabuses;
 - e) any other qualifications/publications relative to the research themes dealt with in the course, each one not more than 10 pages long;
 - f) any other documents required in Appendix A.

All attached documents must be in PDF format.

4. The documents as per the previous paragraph 3 may be either in Italian or English.

5. Pursuant to the Decree of the President of the Republic of the 28 December 2000, No. 445, the statements in the applications shall have the status of self-certification; in the case of false documents and false statements penal sanctions foreseen by art. 76 of the above-mentioned decree 455/2000 shall be applied. Should the rules and regulations concerning substitute statements (D.P.R. n. 445/2000 and subsequent modifications and integrations), not be applicable, candidates are however responsible (from a civil, administrative and penal point of view) for their statements. This Administration reserves the right to ascertain the truthfulness of such statements – as governed by laws in force. Candidates who make false statements shall automatically be excluded from enrollment and any grants awarded shall be retroactively withdrawn. Further administrative and/or penal sanctions foreseen by the laws and legislation in force may also be applied.

6. The University Administration cannot be held responsible for documentation which goes astray due to mistaken indications of residence and postal address given by candidates and / or due to the fact that candidates have not communicated any changes or have communicated them too late. Furthermore, this office cannot be held responsible for any mistakes in postal or telegraphic delivery.

7. The University reserves the right to enforce, even after the public exam is over, sanctions which exclude candidates who have failed to comply with or meet up to requirements herein established.

Article 4 – Admission Procedures

1. Selective assessment for admission to the research doctoral course is mainly concerned with establishing the candidates' aptitude for scientific research and it is carried out by the Commission. The Commission shall previously establish the criteria for the comparative assessment of the qualifications/publications.

Article 5 – Examining Commission and its Functions

1. The Chancellor, at the request of the Teaching Body, appoints, by means of a decree, the commission charged with the task of carrying out the selective assessment of the candidates. The commission is made up of at least 3 university professors; it may be integrated by not more than 2 experts, who may also be foreign nationals, from public and private research institutions and structures.

2. The examining commission shall establish the assessment criteria before viewing the applications and documentation submitted by the candidates.
 3. The final list shall be announced on 25th May 2020, and will appear solely on:
 - the noticeboards of the Departments;
 - the noticeboard of the University;
 - on the Internet address <http://www.studenti.unige.it/postlaurea/dottorati/>.
- No information whatsoever shall be posted to candidates' domicile.

Article 6 – Admission to the Courses

1. Candidates are admitted to the courses according to the order in which they appear on the final list until all available places have been assigned.
2. State employees admitted to the doctoral courses during the regular length of time for the course benefit from the leave provided for by collective bargaining or, for civil servants, special leave of absence for study purposes, compatibly with the needs of the administration they belong to, according to art. 2 of Law No. 476 of 13.8.1984, and subsequent modifications, with or without allowance and excluding an explicit waiver, only if they have enrolled for the first time in a doctoral course, whatever the specific field.

Article 7 – Application schedule and contents

1. Candidates who have been admitted to the doctoral course shall present their enrollment applications through the online procedure (<https://servizionline.unige.it/studenti/post-laurea/confermaPL>) within 10th June 2020. If applications are not presented in within this date, it will be considered as a withdrawal from the place.
2. Candidates who have been admitted to the doctoral course shall declare the degree of kinship, until the 4th degree included with: the Chancellor, managers, members of the Academic Senate and of the Board of Governors, Department Directors, Coordinators of PhD courses of the University of Genoa.
3. Candidates shall attached to the enrollment application, through the online procedure:
 - a) photocopy of an identity document, on both sides;
 - b) a passport photo in jpg.
4. Students with a foreign University's degree shall present to the Servizio Alta Formazione offices (located in Piazza della Nunziata 6, 2nd floor) the following original documentation (as per the aforementioned Art. 2) as soon as possible:
 - translated and legalised University degree produced by the diplomatic or consular representation of the Country of award of the degree;
 - declaration of value of the degree given by the same representation.

The above-mentioned documents can be substituted with Diploma Supplement issued by the University according to European Commission, Council of Europe and UNESCO/CEPES standard in case of a degree obtained abroad within the European Union.

Article 8 – Withdrawals and Prohibitions

1. Enrollment on another course which assigns an academic qualification, even from other Universities, is not allowed, except for medical specialization courses, according to the University's Rules and Regulations for the Ph.D. Courses in art. 19, paragraph 8.
2. Candidates who are found to have made false statements shall be excluded from the course. Criminal punitive measures for the issuing of false documentation and untruthful statements may also be applied.

Article 9 – Access and Attendance Fees

1. All graduate students must pay the following amounts:
 - a) a stamp worth € 16,00 (to be carried out exclusively by means of the on-line services at the following address: <https://servizionline.unige.it/studenti/unigepay20/>);
 - b) the regional right-to-education as per Regional Law 27.6.2012, No 22.
2. If payments are not carried out according to the above-mentioned terms, interest shall be paid on arrears.

Article 10 – Organisation of the Course

1. The Course starts officially on 1st July 2020 and lasts three years.
2. Admission to the Doctoral Course involves an exclusive and full time commitment, apart from the possibility of a specific discipline in relation to what is foreseen in art. 6 paragraph 3.
3. With the approval of the Teaching Body, doctoral students may take part in research activities carried out by the University provided they are in line with their academic studies.
4. Regardless of the subject theme chosen by the candidate as per the aforementioned art. 3, paragraph 3. letter c), during the course the doctoral student shall carry out the research assigned to him/her by the Teaching Body.
5. Doctoral students, as an integral part of their educational process may, subject to the Teaching Body's permission and without any increase to the research grant, undertake support teaching in degree courses and II level degree courses, as well as supplementary teaching, as long as it is well within the maximum limit of forty hours for each academic year. Once the third year of the doctoral course is over, this limit is cancelled.
6. Doctoral students may take leave of absence from the PhD Course in the following cases which shall be fully and duly certified: maternity, paternity, illness, postgraduate Master degree attendance in the University of Genova. Absences may be made up at the end of the course. Should this prove unfeasible, graduate students shall sit the final doctorate examinations with the graduate students of the following Ph.D. cycle.
7. Regarding the terms of suspension of the research grant, please refer to the "Regulations for the awarding of research grants (D.R. n. 6144 del 27.7.2015, as modified by D.R. 2495 del 6.6.2018)" available at <https://unige.it/concorsi/assricerca/>
8. At the end of each year, doctoral students shall present the Teaching Body with a detailed written account of the activities carried out. The Teaching Body may ask for the account to be discussed according to procedures it has established. Then the Teaching Body, after conferring with the tutor, shall decide on admitting the doctoral student to the following year or to the final exam; should a student's performance be insufficient, they shall ask the Chancellor to order the exclusion of the doctoral student from the course.
9. Before the beginning of each course year, the graduate students, who have been successfully admitted as per the above paragraph, shall apply for enrollment for the following year. Students shall also – if required – pay the contributions as per art. 10, in the amounts established yearly.

Article 11 – Conferment of Qualification

1. The qualification of Postgraduate Doctor, abbreviated: "Dott.Ric" i.e. "Ph.D.", is awarded once the course is over following a public discussion of a research dissertation which will contribute to the improvement of knowledge or methodologies in the chosen field of research. At the end of the discussion, the dissertation, with a joint written motivated decision of the examining commission, is either approved or rejected. The examining commission, with unanimous vote, may assign first class honours for outstanding scientific results.

Art. 12 – Personal Data Protection

1. The personal data supplied by candidates will be collected by the University of Genoa, “Area didattica (Didactic Area) – Servizio segreterie studenti (Students Affairs Office) - Settore dottorato di ricerca, scuole di specializzazione, esami di stato e master (PhD Sector)” and used for selection and career procedures of the graduate students as per Regulation (EU) 2016/679 “General Data Protection Regulation” and Legislative Decree/Executive Order (D.L.vo) No. 196 of 30.06.2003.

Article 13 – Availability and Information
