INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS’ OFFICE

PRE-ASSESSMENT

- I am a non-EU student living abroad, When can I enroll for a.y. 2022/23?

If you are interested in a master degree taught in English, pre-assessments are now open on the website apply.unige.eu. For all the other courses, you will be able to apply directly on the website www.universitaly.it starting from April 2022.

PRE-ASSESSMENT FOR MASTER DEGREE COURSES TAUGHT IN ENGLISH (DREAMAPPLY)

- Until when can I apply for pre-assessment for a master degree course taught in English?

You can apply for pre-assessment until 31st May 2022 on the website apply.unige.eu.

- If I have not graduated or I have not obtained my final degree yet, which document should I upload?

You have to upload a declaration, possibly issued by your University, stating that you will graduate or obtain your degree no later than 31st July 2022.

- I have not obtained my English language certificate yet, what should I do?

You can upload a declaration stating that you are going to obtain it and you will have to provide the document before confirming enrollment.

- Which English language certificates are accepted?

Our University accepts the certificates listed on this website: https://clat.unige.it. However, we suggest you to check the web page of your course for specific information.

- If classes of my bachelor degree were entirely in English, do I need an English language certificate as well?

No, in this case it is not necessary.

- If I make a mistake in typing a piece of information or if I upload the wrong document, what should I do?

If you make a mistake in typing a piece of information do not worry, personal details are automatically corrected on the basis of the information on your passport. If you upload the wrong document and your application has not been assessed yet, you can upload the correct one adding a note.

- Which is the maximum size of attachments?

Each document cannot exceed 10 MB. If you have a document exceeding this size you can add a link to the file, providing that it redirects only to that specific document.

- Can I modify the priority order of the courses or change them?

If your application has not been assessed yet, you can change the priority by yourself, while to add or modify a course you have to write to sass@unige.it.
• I applied for pre-assessment on apply.unige.eu but I have not received any reply yet, what do I have to do?

Every year we receive many applications for master degree courses taught in English so assessments take time. However, all applications will be assessed and you will soon receive a feedback.

• I have been accepted, what do I have to do now?

You will have to pre-enroll on the website www.universitaly.it as soon as applications for a.y. 2022/23 open.

• I have been “conditionally accepted” to a master degree course and I have to take extra exams, what do I have to do?

During the first semester of a.y. 2022/23 you will have to take the exams indicated and, as soon as you pass them all, you can enroll in the master degree course you chose. You cannot confirm now the enrollment for the master degree course.

• Will I receive an acceptance letter?

No, when we accept your application on www.universitaly.it you will be able to download a summary of your application and the Italian Embassy/Consulate will receive direct communication of your acceptance.

• Why hasn’t my application to a master degree course been accepted?

A dedicated commission carries out an in-depth evaluation on applications for master degree courses. If yours has not been accepted, it is mainly because your qualification does not satisfy the entrance requirements to the course you chose or because your final mark is too low.

UNIVERSITALY

• I applied on Universitaly, now what do I have to do?

Now you have to wait an acceptance communication by the University. In case of missing documents, you will receive an integration request.

• Will I receive an acceptance letter?

You will receive an email informing you that your application has been accepted and at the same time the Italian Embassy or Consulate will be notified about your acceptance. Then you can enter again on Universitaly and download a pdf file where it is indicated that you have been accepted. Acceptance letter is no longer necessary.

• My application has been accepted on Universitaly, now what do I have to do?

Proceed with study visa application at the Italian Embassy/Consulate. As soon as you receive your visa, your qualification documents legalized and Dichiarazione di Valore (DOV) send a copy to SASS office (sass@unige.it)

PRE-ENROLLMENT AND ENROLLMENT IN UNIGE

• What do I have to indicate in the pre-enrollment for a master degree course in the section “Courses” and “Documents”?

In the course section: Date of test> select the first date available

Credit requirements > To be verified
Preliminary test exemption > no exemption

In the “Documents” section you do not need to upload anything.

These sections will be updated when you confirm enrollment.

- My high school diploma/degree is in English, do I have to translate it into Italian?

No, documents written in either English, French, Spanish or Portuguese do not need to be translated.

- What is TELEMACO test and who needs to take it?

You can find all the information about TELEMACO on this page: https://unige.it/studenti/telemaco

ITALIAN LANGUAGE TEST

- I am a student with an International qualification; do I have to sit for the Italian language test?

Yes, even if you have Italian citizenship or you are transferring from another Italian University. You do not have to sit for the test only if you have one of the certificates listed on this page: https://unige.it/internazionale/test-lingua-italiana or if you have already obtained an Italian degree or if you enroll in a course taught in English.

- Which are the dates of the Italian language test and how can I enroll?

All the students involved will automatically receive an email with the instructions on how to enroll for the test. You do not have to subscribe anywhere to receive the abovementioned email.

- Which is the Italian language level required?

The level requested to pass the test is B2 for all the students, with the exception of Marco Polo students enrolling in bachelor degree courses, who have to reach B1 level, and of students pre-enrolled in master degree courses of the Modern Languages Department who have to reach C1 level.

- The Italian Embassy/Consulate is asking me to provide a declaration stating that I can enroll even if I do not pass the Italian language test.

This declaration is provided in the summary of the Universitaly application, which is forwarded directly to each Embassy.

- If I do not pass the Italian language test, can I enroll anyway?

Yes, but you will have to attend a compulsory Italian language course during the first year and then repeat the test at the end of the course. Only students interested in master degree courses of the Modern Languages Department cannot enroll if they do not pass the test.

- I want to know why I did not pass the Italian language test/I want to check my mistakes/I want to know the score I obtained.

You can write to clat@unige.it

BADGE

- What do I have to do to get my badge?

When it is ready, you will receive an email with the necessary information to pick it up at SASS office.
