

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS' OFFICE

PRE-ASSESSMENT

- I am a non-EU student living abroad, When can I enroll for a.y. 2022/23?

You can apply on www.universitaly.it website within 15th July 2022.

PRE-ASSESSMENT FOR MASTER DEGREE COURSES TAUGHT IN ENGLISH (DREAMAPPLY)

- Can I still apply for pre-assessment for a master degree course taught in English?

Pre-assessments for a.y. 2022/23 closed on 31st May 2022. In the upcoming months you will find on www.unige.it website instructions and deadlines for a.y. 2023/24.

- Which English language certificates are accepted?

Our University accepts the certificates listed on this website: <https://clat.unige.it/> . However, we suggest you to check the web page of your course for specific information.

- I applied for pre-assessment on apply.unige.eu but I have not received any reply yet, what do I have to do?

Every year we receive many applications for master degree courses taught in English so assessments take time. However, all applications will be assessed and you will soon receive a feedback.

- I have been accepted, what do I have to do now?

You will have to pre-enroll on the website www.universitaly.it as soon as applications for a.y. 2022/23 open.

- I have been “conditionally accepted” to a master degree course and I have to take extra exams, what do I have to do?

During the first semester of a.y. 2022/23 you will have to take the exams indicated and, as soon as you pass them all, you can enroll in the master degree course you chose. You cannot confirm now the enrollment for the master degree course.

- Will I receive an acceptance letter?

No, when we accept your application on www.universitaly.it you will be able to download a summary of your application and the Italian Embassy/Consulate will receive direct communication of your acceptance.

- Why hasn't my application to a master degree course been accepted?

A dedicated commission carries out an in-depth evaluation on applications for master degree courses. If yours has not been accepted, it is mainly because your qualification does not satisfy the entrance requirements to the course you chose or because your final mark is too low.

UNIVERSITALY

- I applied on Universitaly, now what do I have to do?

Now you have to wait an acceptance communication by the University. In case of missing documents, you will receive an integration request.

- Will I receive an acceptance letter?

You will receive an email informing you that your application has been accepted and at the same time the Italian Embassy or Consulate will be notified about your acceptance. Then you can enter again on University and download a pdf file where it is indicated that you have been accepted. Acceptance letter is no longer necessary.

- My application has been accepted on University, now what do I have to do?

Proceed with study visa application at the Italian Embassy/Consulate. As soon as you receive your visa, your qualification documents legalized and Dichiarazione di Valore (DOV) send a copy to SASS office (sass@unige.it).

You also need to wait to receive from SASS office Unige user name and password to pre-enroll on www.unige.it website.

- What do I have to indicate in the pre-enrollment for a master degree course in the section "Courses" and "Documents"?

In the course section: Date of test > select the first date available

Credit requirements > To be verified

Preliminary test exemption > no exemption

In the "Documents" section you do not need to upload anything.

These sections will be updated when you confirm enrollment.

- My high school diploma/degree is in English, do I have to translate it into Italian?

No, documents written in either English, French, Spanish or Portuguese do not need to be translated.

- What is TELEMACO test and who needs to take it?

You can find all the information about TELEMACO on this page: <https://unige.it/studenti/telemaco>

- I have been conditionally admitted to the Master degree programme in Energy engineering. How can I enroll in the "Bridge career"? After that, do I have to pass an admission test?

You will get registered in the bridge career in September, so that you will pass the additional exams indicated by the commission in charge of your preassessment after your arrival in Italy. AFTER completing your bridge career, you will have to pass the entrance test.

You find all detailed information about the bridge career and the test on the course web site:

<http://www.en2.unige.it/the-bridge-career-carriera-ponte/>

<http://www.en2.unige.it/admission-test-example/>

ITALIAN LANGUAGE TEST

- I am a student with an International qualification; do I have to sit for the Italian language test?

Yes, even if you have Italian citizenship or you are transferring from another Italian University. You do not have to sit for the test only if you have one of the certificates listed on this page: <https://unige.it/internazionale/test-lingua-italiana> or if you have already obtained an Italian degree or if you enroll in a course taught in English.

- Which are the dates of the Italian language test and how can I enroll?

Sessions of the Italian language test are indicated on the web page <https://unige.it/en/usg/en/italian-language-test>

All the students involved will automatically receive an email with the instructions on how to enroll for the test. You do not have to subscribe anywhere to receive the abovementioned email.

- Which is the Italian language level required?

The level requested to pass the test is B2 for all the students, with the exception of Marco Polo students enrolling in bachelor degree courses, who have to reach B1 level, and of students pre-enrolled in master degree courses of the Modern Languages Department who have to reach C1 level.

- The Italian Embassy/Consulate is asking me to provide a declaration stating that I can enroll even if I do not pass the Italian language test.

This declaration is provided in the summary of the University application, which is forwarded directly to each Embassy.

- If I do not pass the Italian language test, can I enroll anyway?

Yes, but you will have to attend a compulsory Italian language course during the first year and then repeat the test at the end of the course. Only students interested in master degree courses of the Modern Languages Department cannot enroll if they do not pass the test.

- I want to know why I did not pass the Italian language test/I want to check my mistakes/I want to know the score I obtained.

You can write to clat@unige.it

BADGE

- What do I have to do to get my badge?

When it is ready, you will receive an email with the necessary information to pick it up at SASS office.
