PROJECT FOR INTERNATIONAL DIDACTIC AND TRAINING MOBILITY

Call for the award of scholarships to support thesis research projects in Extra-EU Countries

DESCRIPTION	For the a.y. 2022/2023, the fourth call for the award of 50 scholarships aimed at supporting thesis-preparation mobility for bachelor, master and single-cycle master degree courses is issued. The activity can be developed in Universities, Research Centres, public and private Institutions and highly qualified companies based in Extra-EU Countries. The applications will be processed according to the order of registration on the online application system until reaching the maximum number established.
APPLICANTS	Students enrolled in bachelor, master and single-cycle master degree courses.
DURATION AND PERIOD OF THE MOBILITY	The mobility must last no less than 2 months (60 days) and no more than 6 months (180 days) during a.y. 2022/23 (last deadline to apply: 30th November 2023 - last deadline to complete the mobility: 8th March 2024). If the student carries out a period of longer mobility, the period of financial coverage will be 180 days. Please note that the mobility must end at least 30 days before the graduation date. If, at the end of the mobility, the student is not able to graduate in the a.y. 2022/2023 he/she will have to enroll for a.y. 2023/2024. The activity abroad has to be continuous. Requests of interruption must, therefore, be immediately sent to the e-mail address borsatesi@unige.it for their assessment.
ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- To be regularly enrolled at the University of Genoa (students enrolled one year after the normal duration of the course can apply).- Students cannot perform the mobility in the Country where they have legal residence during their studies. Non-EU citizens must have a valid Italian residence permit according to the current Immigration Law (as per legislative decree n. 286/98 and subsequent amendments).- Language proficiency certificate if required by the hosting institution.- To respect the rules and regulations of each course of study for the final thesis.- To comply, when applicable, with the pre-requirements established in the Erasmus+ call for traineeship, available at the following link:

- https://servizionline.unige.it/unige/common/erasmus/manifesto/ManifestoErasmusSMP2022_2023.html

In any case, the student must verify the additional pre-requisites required by her/his course of study and by the foreign destination.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The scholarships promoted by the present call are incompatible with other scholarships awarded for one of the following programmes in the same period:

- a) Erasmus + programme for study or traineeship;
- b) Study careers where the mobility is mandatory to obtain the double degree
- c) Any other kind of mobility abroad supported by a financial contribution (such as CINDA programme or Extra-Erasmus mobility)

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The student, having previously received the endorsement from the Supervisor of the final exam/thesis, must submit to the Course Board, through the competent departmental office¹, the documents attesting the pre-requirements established by the Erasmus + for traineeship call for applications and any other useful information for the Course Board to adopt its resolution.

If the Course Board approves the application, the student completes the application online at <https://erasmus.servizionline.unige.it/bt> using UniGePass credentials for access and he/she has to add the endorsement letter that must be signed by Unige and by the hosting institution and he/she can add other documents useful for the application and evaluation.

WITHDRAWAL/ INTERRUPTION OF THE MOBILITY	If the recipient withdraws or interrupts the mobility without a valid motivation he/she will have to refund the first installment of the scholarship, if already paid. If the student does not refund the amount unduly paid, the University will prevent him/her from taking further exams until the amount has been refunded, as per art. 19, paragraph 2 of the "Rules and Regulations for Students' contributions and University benefits".

FURTHER OBLIGATIONS

TO BE UNDERTAKEN BY CANDIDATES

We remind that being accepted by the hosting institution does not guarantee access to the Country. The student must verify independently timing and procedures to obtain the visa and any other requirement to enter the Country, included health insurance. Unige assumes no responsibility in case of missed or delayed issuance of the visa.

Copy of the health insurance and of any other additional insurances must be provided at the subscription of the contract.

On this topic we would like to mention the online information service of the Italian Ministry of Health, available on the following website:

<http://www.salute.gov.it>, section: "Temi e professioni" (topics and professions)> "Assistenza, Ospedale e Territorio" (Health care, hospital and territory)> "Assistenza sanitaria italiani all'estero e stranieri in Italia" (Health care for Italian citizens abroad and for foreign citizens in Italy).

The University of Genoa guarantees to all its students both the insurance coverage for injuries at work (INAIL), as per current Law, and the civil liability insurance (R.C.T.) through the related policy (n. 151189675, and following renewals), subscribed with the Insurance Company UNIPOL-SAI, "La Fondiaria" division.

The University invites the selected candidates to check, before leaving, security warnings on the hosting Country on the website of the Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation Ministry: www.viaggiareassicuri.it
Students can also register the information related to their stay on the website www.dovesiamonelmundo.it

Selected candidates commit themselves as well to provide to the hosting Institution documents they require. During the authorized period of mobility the student cannot perform any didactic activity in UNIGE, as the mobility period must be continuous.

Genoa,

The Rector

Prof. Federico Delfino
