Internship proposal

Company: Babylon Radio

Website: https://babylonradio.com/

Internship location: Ireland, Dublin

Areas of interests: Architecture and design, Political science, Educational science, Law and jurisprudence, Literature and philosophy, Languages and cultures
Any field related to Journalism

Requirements / preferences: Strong organizational skills and administration skills
Excellent verbal and written communications skills
Strong decision making and conflict resolution abilities

Description of the internship proposal

JOURNALISM.

Babylon has exciting opportunities for passionate journalists to participate in the creative cycle of a news story by investigating and writing rich and unbiased stories. We’re on the lookout for budding journalists who possess an enquiring mind and the ability to win the confidence of all kinds of people with high standards of accuracy. While many are of the view that a journalist’s job is simply writing articles for print publications, journalists nowadays have to be familiar with technology and the job involves much more in terms of media familiarity.

Babylon is a multicultural site with information about living in Ireland, a web radio, fresh articles, and events. The internship is unpaid at the moment. It is an exciting opportunity for those who are looking for some hands-on experience. The internship is for a minimum of 3 months.

Activities:
- Possess exemplary writing skills, having a portfolio is desirable;
- Collect, verify and analyze newsworthy information;
- Assemble findings into a stable story;
- Write and deliver news stories with the reader’s perspective in mind;
- Receive assignments or investigate news leads/tips;
- Abide by journalism’s ethics and codes.

N° of positions: 3

How to apply: email: hr@babylonradio.com or team@babylonradio.com

Reference person: Dearan Ó hÓgartaigh, company’s founder